

CAIPE Student scholarship Awards FAQs

FAQs

1. What if I have graduated before the conference?
As long as you are a student when you submit your application that is fine
2. Can I join CAIPE as a student member in order to apply for the scholarship?
Yes, as long as you are a paid up member of CAIPE when you submit your application
3. Does my work have to have been finished and evaluated?
Paper and poster submissions do have to be finished and evaluated. Work in progress should be submitted for round table discussions, seminar or workshop. All work must be rigorous and evaluated as appropriate, whether finished or in progress.
4. Will I have to present in Japanese?
No, there will be translation provided. Do try and learn a few words and phrases if you can!
5. Will I get feedback on my application if I don't succeed?
We will provide as much feedback as we can although this will depend on the number of applications.
6. Can I get help in the final preparations of my contribution?
Yes, if you like. You will get feedback from your pre conference session at a CAIPE event and CAIPE members will support you
7. Is there one award for Undergraduates and one for postgraduates?
No. There are two awards for the two most appropriate submissions, regardless of qualification in progress
8. Will there be an opportunity for support / mentor whilst at the conference.
Yes, there will be a number of CAIPE members at the conference who will be very happy to help should you wish to ask. They will make themselves known to you anyway and are very friendly!
9. Who else from CAIPE will be at the conference?
There will be many delegates at ATBHVI and many will be CAIPE individual, corporate or student members.
10. What does being an Ambassador mean?
Participating fully in the conference. Being familiar with CAIPE, its aims and objectives, way of operating, the CAIPE website, activities etc so that you can explain what CAIPE is about to other students from different countries. Using your common sense and not letting yourself or the organisation down in any way.
